

TIKKAWAY

Authentic Indian & Bangladeshi Cuisine

Spice for the day

For our full menu, visit www.tikkaway.co.uk

272 Holton Road, BARRY

Tel: 01446 741700

The Barry

GEM

"Your ORIGINAL priceless weekly newspaper"

The Vale's longest serving Community Newspaper

Established 1983

Unique Flooring SHOWROOM NOW OPEN

for all the latest fashionable and bespoke flooring
TRADE COUNTER NOW OPEN
Weston Hall, Weston Square, Cadoxton, Barry CF63 3JZ.
Tel: 01446 406365
Mob: 07976 211978
www.uniqueflooringbarry.co.uk

Weekly audited circulation (52 weeks) to 31/12/09 - 43,445 (GDM Series). Audited by Grant Thornton Ltd, Chartered Accountants

www.barry-today.co.uk

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30TH, 2010

Community rallies round who was collision

by TIM CHAPMAN

John Bushell, Barry to and in a bedroom, found Avaint in possession of drugs. She was arrested and said she had tried to swallow the drugs.

Judge Neil Bidder said: "Three times,

Flying Vet's court action against police

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)

Lloyd Williams said: "This matter has to be drawn under the resolution soon and a line has to be drawn under the case."

Mr Williams said that whenever Mr Kirk had been in court in the past he had always raised the issue of conspiracy.

"That has always been put before the courts and it has always been considered," he said.

The judge said that the preparation of his judgment would take some time to assemble because there was such a large amount of material involved.

Earlier in the hearing, it was estimated that if evidence had been called, it would have lasted up to 10 weeks with costs of £800,000.

'Flying Vet' claims South Wales Police were out to get him

Report by AJ SICLUNA

JUDGEMENT in part of the case at Cardiff County Court in which Vale 'Flying Vet' Maurice Kirk is suing South Wales Police will be given on October 11.

Last week, the hearing of evidence in the case was adjourned because Mr Kirk was suffering from a severe hip condition which was causing such pain that he had to take morphine.

Mr Kirk (65) who has addressed in Barry and Brittany, has claimed a conspiracy has existed against him for many years.

Lloyd Williams QC, who represents South Wales Police, who were saying and want to holding of incident numbers concerning him by the police.

"They have conspired to get Kirk," he said.

He also claimed that covert surveillance was set up by the police because they alleged he was a threat.

There had also been mismanagement and the withholding of disclosure information, the court was told.

"I have served everything I have got to the other side," He added: "I am anxious to get this case out of this building and to the Court of Appeal." He left the court room after 30 minutes.

Continued on page 3

... if they can help ... to come

JOIN FOR FREE
... D SUPPORT DEAF & BLIND

AUTHENTIC INDIA

TIFFIN
raso

10% DISCOUNT ON COLLECTION
Credit/Debit cards accepted

REAL INDIAN

TIKKAWAY
Authentic Indian & Bangladeshi Cuisine
Spice for the day
For our full menu, visit www.tikkaway.co.uk
272 Holton Road, BARRY
Tel: 01446 741700

The Barry GEM

"Your ORIGINAL priceless weekly newspaper"
The Vale's longest serving Community Newspaper
Established 1983

Unique Flooring SHOWROOM NOW OPEN
for all the latest fashionable and bespoke flooring
TRADE COUNTER NOW OPEN
Watson Hall, Weston Square, Cardston, Barry, CF63 3HJ.
Tel: 01446 406365
Mob: 07976 211978
www.outpoorflooringwales.co.uk

Weekly audited circulation (52 weeks) to 31/12/09 - 43,445 (GEM Series). Audited by Grinler Johnson Ltd, Chartered Accountants

www.barry-today.co.uk

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30TH, 2010

Community rallies round Barry to support prosecution
John Boshell, Barry town councillor, said he was "pleased" to find out that the prosecution was proceeding against the man who was charged with supplying drugs to a woman who was arrested and charged with intent to supply.
Judge Neil Bidder said: "Three times, she was found in possession of drugs, and in a bedroom in Avonant in possession of drugs. She was arrested and charged with intent to supply. She had tried to swallow the drugs."

Flying Vet's court action against police
(CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1)
Lloyd Williams said: "This matter has to be drawn under the Act and a line has to be drawn under the Act."
Mr Williams said that whenever Mr Kirk had been in court in the past he had always raised the issue of conspiracy.
"That has always been put before the courts and it has always been considered," he said.
The judge said that the preparation of his judgment would take some time to assemble because there was such a large amount of material involved.
Earlier in the hearing, it was estimated that if evidence had been called, it would have lasted up to 10 weeks with costs of £800,000.

by TIM CHAPMAN

'Flying Vet' claims South Wales Police were out to get him

Report by AJ SICLUNA

JUDGEMENT in part of the case at Cardiff County Court in which Vale 'Flying Vet' Maurice Kirk is suing South Wales Police will be given on October 11.

holding of incident numbers concerning him by the police. "They have conspired to get Kirk," he said. He also claimed that covert surveillance was set up by the police because they alleged he was a threat.

Last week, the hearing of evidence in the case was adjourned because Mr Kirk was suffering from a severe hip condition which was causing such pain that he had to take morphine.

There had also been mismanagement and the withholding of disclosure information, the court was told.

Mr Kirk (65) who has addressed in Barry and Brittany, has claimed a conspiracy has existed against him for many years.

There had also been mismanagement and the withholding of disclosure information, the court was told.

Lloyd Williams QC, who represents South Wales Police, who were saving and want to

There had also been mismanagement and the withholding of disclosure information, the court was told.

... if they can help ... to come

JOIN FOR FREE.
... Support Deont...

TIFFIN raso
10% DISCOUNT ON COLLECTION
Credit/Debit cards accepted

AUTHENTIC INDIA

REAL INDIAN

... been at ... ren at

... if they can help ... to come

JOIN FOR FREE.
... Support Deont...