

Abuse of Process Application – Maurice Kirk v SWP/RCVS CO/8751/2007

ECHR refuse any further complaint applications. Articles 1 and 13 omitted from 1998HRA

HM Court Service

Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons

2007 - Cardiff manager denies knowledge of order from HM Attorney General for transfer of 'lost' files to Whitehall in pursuance of vexatious litigation claim.

RCVS withholds witness statements favourable to the Respondent whilst securing attendance of hostile police witnesses at RCVS hearing against him.

2004 Appeal – RCVS claim full disclosure made.

2000 – Welsh police disclose full MJK records to RCVS

MJK Complaints to Metropolitan and South Wales Police

All complaints relating to police conduct are ignored by IPCC

PC Chief Clerk & JC Registrar refuse to open or accept Humble Petitions

HM Privy Council

HM Customer Service Unit

HM Information Commissioner

HM CPS and police fail to comply with disclosure orders made by six Crown Court judges

In response appeal for disclosure, under DPA, police deemed to be 'clients' of RCVS and as such, documentation 'privileged'

Independent Police Complaints Commission

Royal Courts of Justice

HM Solicitor General internal memos and e-mails inadvertently left in files

CSU admit 'watching brief' but refuse to release transcripts and audit trail covering the 20 month delay before the Welsh jury trial appeal listed in RJC

2005 – Mr Justice Andrew Collins extends Civil Restraint Order thereby blocking disclosure of collaboration between SWP, RCVS, HMPCS, and SWP. Over 40 JR applications refused. RCVS and SWP move the goalposts in each application for restoration to the RCVS Register.

HM Attorney General

HM Court of Appeal

HM Administrative Court

Mr Justice McComb, Mr Justice Kay and Lord Justice Thomas all appeared unfamiliar with the file relating to the appeal for trial by Jury. Legal representation denied. Discrepancy between transcript and tape of proceedings.

RCVS continues refusal to disclose contrary to recorded advice from its Legal Assessor and from Mr Justice Parker

2007 – Barry Magistrates confirm erroneous convictions thereby casting doubt on Privy Council ruling that MK was struck off by RCVS for 'cumulative effect'.

5th harassment action lodged against South Wales Police relating to a further false imprisonment.

Cardiff Civil Justice

No abuse of Process Investigation resulted from the hearing of 17th December 2007

Leave to Appeal refused.

16th June RCJ hearing for Court of Appeal and House of Lords because RCVS refuse any further applications by Mr Kirk to be allowed to practice veterinary surgery